THREE PRIORITIES FOR OUR PARISH

1. Be open to the Holy Spirit

Come Holy Spirit guide us in all that we do

2. We grow together as a Family

Let us be inclusive, look after and reach out to each other the best way we can

3. To bring other people to Jesus

Let us live our Faith outwardly and share the Joy of Jesus in our lives with others

Keep giving Jesus to the people not by words but by your example, by being in love with Jesus, by radiating holiness and spreading His fragrance of love everywhere you go

Just keep the joy of Jesus as your strength, be happy and at peace. (St. Teresa of Calcutta)

Please remember in your prayers.....

All in your families & those of our parishioners who are sick..

Remember all those who have died recently....

All those with Anniversaries at this time

At least 3 million people, and rising, have fled their homes to escape conflict in Ukraine - leaving behind jobs, belongings and loved ones, they need shelter, food and water.

Life for the people of Ukraine has completely changed. Homes, schools and hospitals have been destroyed. CAFOD's local churches partners are already on the ground in Ukraine, Moldova, Poland And Romania, helping refugee families, especially children.

A Big Thank You to all who contributed to our own response to the Ukraine Appeal.

We banked £ 1,106 in the CAFOD Emergency Fund Account on behalf of the Parish of St Cuthbert. A real team effort over the past 3/4 week ends.

We will let you know where the donated items have been sent, soon

Ken Hogg is having a Plant Sale on the weekend of 7th May in aid of the Ukrainian Appeal.

THE CHARCOAL FIRE

From night to night,
In cold and fright,
Stood I near charcoal fire,
And, warming there,
Did curse and swear,
And show myself a liar.
“Are you not he
From Galilee,
The friend of Him all meek?”
The cock did crow.
“I do not know
The Man of Whom you speak.”
But then He turned,
And in me burned
A flame, lit from His gaze,
At which I wept
For oaths unkept
And all my lukewarm days.
When He was tried
Him I denied
And failed to pass the test,
Though promised I
With Him to die,
Should fail Him all the rest.
Filled with regrets
And empty nets,
I turned to former hire.
But when dawn came,
He spoke my name,
While burned the charcoal fire.
Now at the shore,
He asks once more
If I will be His friend
And, on the sands,
With pierced hands,
Gives me His sheep to tend.

Fr. Timothy J. Draper

⁵⁵ They lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat around it, and Peter sat down with them.

⁵⁶ When a maid saw him seated in the light, she looked intently at him and said, “This man too was with him.”

⁵⁷ But he denied it saying, “Woman, I do not know him.”

⁵⁸ A short while later someone else saw him and said, “You too are one of them”; but Peter answered, “My friend, I am not.”

⁵⁹ About an hour later, still another insisted, “Assuredly, this man too was with him, for he also is a Galilean.”

⁶⁰ But Peter said, “My friend, I do not know what you are talking about.” Just as he was saying this, the cock crowed,

⁶¹ and the Lord turned and looked at Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, “Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times.”

⁶² He went out and began to weep bitterly.
