Prayer for the Queen

Following the Prayer after Communion

V. O Lord, save Elizabeth, our Queen. R. And hear us on the day we call upon you.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come before you.

V. The Lord be with you. R. And with your spirit.

R. And with your spirit.

Almighty God, we pray, that your servant Elizabeth, our Queen, who, by your providence has received the governance of this realm, may continue to grow in every virtue, that, imbued with your heavenly grace, she may be preserved from all that is harmful and evil and, being blessed with your favour may, with the royal family, come at last into your presence, through Christ who is the way, the truth and the life and who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Priest: As the season of Easter comes to an end, and aware of the Holy Spirit at work within us, we now ask God, our Father, to renew each one of us through His Spirit, as we put our needs and prayers before Him.

Reader:

1. We give thanks for missionaries throughout the world. May we never forget to pray for them and support them in any way we can; and always remember our own role as missionaries within our own communities.

Lord in your mercy..... (Translated to French language)

2. On this Pentecost Sunday, we join all other parishes in the Diocese to pray for the people of the parish of St Kentigern in Fallowfield, along with canon Michael Clearly their parish Priest and their parish primary school. May they be so moved by the Spirit, that the face of the earth will be renewed.

Lord in your mercy..... (Translated to Yoruba language)

3. This week particularly, we remember with gratitude the long life of long life of love and service given by Her majesty Queen Elizabeth II to our country and the commonwealth. We ask that she will be richly blessed, encouraging us all by her example to serve one another and seek the common good, being guided always by our Christian faith.

Lord in your mercy..... (Translated to Igbo language)

4. We pray for people throughout the world, who are despised or persecuted, because of their faith, skin colour or culture. As those who gathered in Jerusalem on the first Pentecost heard the Good News in their own language, may all people overcome their fear of others, and seek mutual understanding and respect.

Lord, in your mercy..... (Translated to Malayalam language)

5. We pray for all those who are preparing for and sitting exams, especially those in our own parish community; that the Holy Spirit may bring them wisdom and courage, particularly in moments of fear.

Lord, in your mercy..... (Translated to Portuguese language)

6. We pray for ourselves. Like the apostles, may we be filled with God's Holy Spirit, and, in what we say and what we do, speak to the world of His unending love for everyone. As a parish may we be open to the Holy Spirit and grow together as a loving and outgoing community.

Lord in your mercy..... (Translated to Spanish language)

We ask Our Blessed Lady, to Intercede on our behalf as we say.....Hail Mary.....

Priest: Holy Father, we ask you to hear our prayers and, if it is your will, to grant them through the Holy Spirit, in the name of Jesus Christ, your Son. Amen

Priest: As the season of Easter comes to an end, and aware of the Holy spirit at work within us, we now ask God, our Farther, to renew each one of us through His Spirit, as we put our needs and prayers before Him.
