- Thank You for your continuing generosity, as shown through:
- the £108.55 placed in the wall box at the rear of St Thomas of Canterbury church
- the substantial anonymous individual donation received immediately prior to Christmas
- the donations made in memory of the late Winifred Poulson, as requested by the family

Afternoon Tea -Tuesday, 30th January

2.00pm—3.30pm

All are welcome to come along for a friendly chat over tea, coffee and cakes in the Becket Suite

The Cafod Lancashire Lunch took place on Sunday 21st January in the Becket Suite at St Thomas of Canterbury 's Church and proved to be a massive success. It was wonderful to see so many people together enjoying themselves.

A big thank you to all the kind parishioners who donated: books, White Elephant items,

Raffle prizes and cakes.

The total raised was £1,238.50p which will be sent to Cafod overseas projects

We wish to thank our two sponsors:

Joe Egan Solicitors & PLM Estate Agents who donated £100 each to the event.

Carrs Pasties also offered a 20% reduction on the food

Please see the item on line with photos of the occasion.

Please put your old palms in the boxes provided no later than Pancake Tuesday in readiness for Ash Wednesday
