National Novena to St Joseph 10th -18th March 2024

Each year the Mill Hill Missionaries prepare for the feast day, on March 19th of St Joseph, their Society Patron, with a Novena of Masses and prayers, asking for God's blessing on their Society's missionary outreach in their work for MISSIO and for the intentions of all who support their work.

If you would like to join in the Novena, the Masses from St Joseph's Church, Maidenhead, will be available to follow on Zoom, via the Mill Hill website:

www.millhillmissionaries.com/novena. The masses will be at 10.00am every day of the Novena except Sunday, when it will be at 11.00am. Also available on Zoom will be Evening Prayer together with the Novena Prayer at 6.00pm every day during the Novena.

You are welcome to send in your intentions and petitions and/or request a Novena prayer booklet, to enable you to join in from home, by praying the daily Novena prayers. Please write to the Novena Director, St Joseph's Missionary Society,

6, Colby Gardens, Maidenhead, SL6 7GZ, or Tel: 01628-673178

or email novenamhm@gmail.com

Do your children join in the Childrens Liturgy sessions at Mass on Sunday morning?

St Thomas of Canterbury are STILL desperately seeking people to help each week.

Could that be you?

Come on down, join one of the sessions!

If you could make yourself available maybe just once a month to help with the children, that would be amazing.

If you feel you could help, give your contact details at the liturgy session or you can email for more information to childrensliturgy@stcuthberts.org.uk

Look out for the catechists at the back of church after Mass.

THANK YOU IN ANTICIPATION!!!

Stabat Mater

At the Cross her station keeping, stood the mournful Mother weeping, close to her Son to the last.
 Through her heart, His sorrow sharing, all His bitter anguish bearing, now at length the sword has passed.
 O how sad and sore distressed was that Mother, highly blest, of the sole-begotten One.
 Christ above in torment hangs, she beneath beholds the pangs of her dying glorious Son.
 Is there one who would not weep, whelmed in miseries so deep, Christ's dear Mother to behold?
 Can the human heart refrain from partaking in her pain, in that Mother's pain untold?
 Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled, She beheld her tender child All with bloody scourges rent.

For the love of His own nation, Saw Him hang in desolation, Till His spirit forth He sent.
 O thou Mother! fount of love! Touch my spirit from above, make my heart with thine accord:
 Make me feel as thou hast felt; make my soul to glow and melt with the love of Christ my Lord.
 Holy Mother! pierce me through, in my heart each wound renew of my Savior crucified:
 Let me share with thee His pain, who for all my sins was slain, who for me in torments died.
 Let me mingle tears with thee, mourning Him who mourned for me, all the days that I may live:
 By the Cross with thee to stay, there with thee to weep and pray, is all I ask of thee to give.
 Virgin of all virgins blest!, Listen to my fond request: let me share thy grief divine;
 Let me, to my latest breath, in my body bear the death of that dying Son of thine.
 Wounded with His every wound, steep my soul till it hath swooned, in His very Blood away;
 Be to me, O Virgin, nigh, lest in flames I burn and die, in His awful Judgment Day.
 Christ, when Thou shalt call me hence, be Thy Mother my defence, be Thy Cross my victory;

While my body here decays, may my soul Thy goodness praise, Safe in Paradise with Thee.
