Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

FIRST READING

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter said to the people: 'You are Israelites,
and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob,
the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate, after Pilate had decided to release him.
It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded the reprieve of a murderer while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses.

"Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins
may be wiped out.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 4:2,4,7,9

Response:

Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.
Or Alleluia!

- 1 When I call, answer me, O God of justice;
from anguish you released me,
have mercy and hear me! (R.)

- 2 It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves;
the Lord hears me whenever I call him. (R.)
- 3 What can bring us happiness? many say.
Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.
(R.)
- 4 I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once
for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.
(R.)

SECOND READING

1 John 2:1-5

A reading from the first letter of St John.

I am writing this, my children,
to stop you sinning;
but if anyone should sin,
we have our advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, who is just;
he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away,
and not only ours,
but the whole world's.
We can be sure that we know God
only by keeping his commandments.
Anyone who says, 'I know him,'
and does not keep his commandments, is a liar,
refusing to admit the truth.
But when anyone does obey what he has said,
God's love comes to perfection in him.
The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, explain the scriptures to us.
Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 24:35-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

The disciples told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread.

They were still talking about this when Jesus himself stood among them and said to them,
"Peace be with you!" In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost.
But he said, "Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they could not believe it, and they stood dumbfounded; so he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes.

Then he told them, "This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms, has to be fulfilled."
He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (all bow during the next two lines)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Receive, O Lord, we pray,
these offerings of your exultant Church,
and, as you have given her cause for such great gladness,
grant also that the gifts we bring may bear fruit in perpetual happiness.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Christ had to suffer and on the third day rise from the dead;
in his name repentance and remission of sins
must be preached to all the nations, alleluia.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Look with kindness upon your people, O Lord,
and grant, we pray,
that those you were pleased to renew by eternal mysteries
may attain in their flesh
the incorruptible glory of the resurrection.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Sunday Message

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

THE WORD

Year B • 14 April 2024 • Psalter Week 3

JESUS APPEARS TO THE DISCIPLES

LUKE 24: 35-48

The disciples cannot make sense of Jesus' death. Nor can they make sense of what is going on when Jesus appears to them. When this Gospel is written, Luke writes it to strengthen the belief that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. By themselves, the disciples cannot arrive at an understanding of what is going on, they need the risen Christ to uncover the meaning of what is happening.

The two disciples of Emmaus have returned to Jerusalem to tell their story of a personal encounter with Jesus and how they recognised him at the breaking of bread. But can the assembly of the disciples make sense of all that has happened? While they are still talking and debating about all they have heard, Jesus appears among them. And like the account in John's Gospel, he prays peace upon this holy gathering. Rather than recognising Jesus, they are alarmed and frightened. They think they are seeing a ghost. They are unable to make sense of what is happening before their eyes. There are parallels here with the story of Doubting Thomas. He too struggled with the initial signs shown by the risen Jesus. Here too, the appearance of Jesus does not open the eyes of the disciples. Only the risen Christ can take the disciples from mystery to revelation, from confusion to understanding. ■

REFLECT

The understanding of the Church today and the unique insights we have of the risen Jesus and his life and ministry are based on the unique experiences of the early disciples and the documentation of these experiences in the bible. The first disciples may have struggled initially to make sense of what was happening before their eyes. However, they did not keep their experiences to themselves. They became missionaries, spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ throughout the world. The Church is always missionary and evangelises everywhere. As this text is being written, Pope Francis is visiting the Church in Mongolia. A place where the initial seeds of the Word are growing and where the presence of Pope Francis offers hope and encouragement to all who believe. Every generation must make the message of Jesus its own and pass it on to others. We keep the message alive by giving it away. We recognise Jesus at the breaking of bread, and we show his peace and love to the world. ■

LEARN

'The source of the Church's mission is the conviction that Christ is risen and fully alive and present to the community of believing Christians.' (Archbishop John Nienstedt)

SAY

'Give something, however small, to one in need. For it is not small to one who has nothing. Neither is it small to God, if we have given what we could.'

(Saint Gregory of Nazianzus)

DO

How can you be of service to God's people this week? Is there a reluctance in you to volunteer for a worthy parish initiative? How can you support your fellow lay missionaries?
